

a reading by poet

JANE HIRSHFIELD

Tuesday, April 7th,
at the Onondaga County
Public Library's
Curtin Auditorium, 447 S. Salina St. (The Galleries).

Jane Hirshfield is the author of six books of poetry, including After, Given Sugar, Given Salt (winner of the Bay Area Book Reviewers Award), and The Lives of the Heart, as well as a book of essays, Nine Gates: Entering the Mind of Poetry. In 2008, Bloodaxe Books (UK) released her book Hiddenness, Uncertainty, Surprise: Three Generative Energies of Poetry.

Hirshfield's other honors include The Poetry Center Book Award, and fellowships from the Guggenheim and Rockefeller Foundations, the NEA, and the Academy of American Poets. Her work has been featured in five editions of The Best American Poetry. In 2004, Hirshfield was awarded the 70th Academy Fellowship for distinguished poetic achievement by The Academy of American Poets, an honor formerly held by such poets as Robert Frost, Ezra Pound and Elizabeth Bishop.

The DWC is pleased to co-sponsor poet Jane Hirshfield's visit to Syracuse, along with the Onondaga County Public Library, Syracuse University, and The Zen Center of Syracuse.
