New Online Publication Covering South Side

SouthSideStand.com

A new source of news covering the South Side. The Stand offers positive stories on the people & events of Syracuse's South Side. Community reporters receive training through The Stand & then venture out in the community to tell its stories. Ideas & even videos can be made to share with readers at local computer stations, one of which will be at Beauchamp Library.

Interested in participating, finding out where other computer stations are located or learning more about The Stand's Journalism 101 Workshops, contact the director of the project Ashley Hanry at Ashley@SouthSideStand.com or call 315-443-8664.
