NOVEMBER ART EXHIBIT
Syracuse Weaver's Guild

The mission of the Syracuse Weavers Guild is to stimulate an interest in the art and craft of weaving, achieve a high standard of excellence and help and encourage all persons interested in weaving.

FOR EVERYONE:

Betts Book Discussion Group

Tuesday, November 17 at 10:00 am
This month the group will discuss Loving Frank, by Nancy Horan. All are welcome to join in the conversation

For Children

Story Time

Thursdays, Nov. 5, 12, and 19 from 10:30-11:00 am
Story time provides an introduction to group listening and participation skills with picture books, music, stories and lots of fun!

Pajama Story Time

Wednesday Nov. 18 at 6:30 pm
Children of all ages are invited to wear their PJs to the library for this special one hour program. There will be stories and other fun activities. Teddy bears are welcome too! Advance registration required.

For Adults

Betts Knit and Crochet Group

Saturday mornings
9:00-11:00 am

All are welcome to join the library's knitting and crochet group. We meet every Saturday morning to share ideas, chat, and knit in a casual and friendly environment.

Create a T-shirt Quilt

Saturday, November 7 from 2-5pm.

Don't throw away those old t-shirts; turn them into a quilt for the winter! Bring in a t-shirt, and we will show you how to use it to make a t-shirt quilt. All other materials will be provided. Please register by phone or in person. Space is limited.

Meet The Author - Book Signing with Brenda Duffy

Saturday, November 14 at 3:00 pm

Ms. Duffy's recently completed book, The Peacemaker, which is a generational saga that begins with the Dekawida and the establishment of the Iroquois Confederacy. The story begins in Syracuse, New York around the 11th Century, with the establishment of the Iroquois Confederacy, and ends on September 11, 2001. Copies of the book will be available ($20 payable by cash or check) at the book signing.
