

Key Foundation Center Reference Books

1/6/2009

Title	Purpose	Key Facts	Covers	Format and Special Features
FOUNDATION DIRECTORY	for larger foundations by name, state, subject interest, geographic focus, or type of support	detailed information on giving interests and restrictions, application guidelines, names of officers and directors, and selected grants (when available)	the 10,000 largest U.S. foundations based on total giving	by state, then alphabetical by name
FOUNDATION DIRECTORY PART 2	for mid-sized foundations by name, state, subject interest, geographic focus, or type of support	detailed information on giving interests and restrictions, application guidelines, names of officers and directors, and selected grants (when available)	the second 10,000 largest U.S. foundations based on total giving	by state, then alphabetical by name
FOUNDATION DIRECTORY PART 3	for foundations in a particular state, in a certain giving range, or that have recently been established or have recently been terminated; foundation affiliations of trustees, officers, and donors; cross-references to other Foundation Center publications	main address and telephone numbers; application address(es) and contact person(s); establishment data; basic financial information; geographic limitations; printed material available from the foundation; application information; donors, officers, trustees, or other governing bodies; type of foundation; grantmaking status (if applicable); Employer Identification Number	U.S. grantmaking independent foundations, community foundations, corporate foundations and grantmaking operating foundations; Appendix B lists foundations giving only to specified beneficiaries; Appendix C lists organizations that have not engaged in grantmaking activities during the most current fiscal year on record - many of these are newly established	Two volumes arranged alphabetically by state. Comprehensive list of foundations. Assist grantseekers in targeting local funding prospects, identifying newly established foundations, and locating the many large and small foundations in a particular geographic area. Volume Two provides a comprehensive name index of trustees, officers and donors enabling grantseekers to determine if an individual has affiliations with one or more foundations

Key Foundation Center Reference Books

1/6/2009

Title	Purpose	Key Facts	Covers	Format and Special Features
FOUNDATION 1000	for largest foundations by name, subject interest, geographic focus, or type of support	most detailed information on giving interests; restrictions; background; application procedures; names of officers, directors, and program staff; and grants analyses by subject area, recipient type, type of support, population group, and geographic distribution	the 1,000 largest U.S. foundations based on total giving	Alphabetical by Foundation name. Contains sponsoring company information where appropriate, a description of current programs, and a grants analysis section. Also, in most cases, it provides more in-depth information on establishment data and application information that the Center's other directories
NATIONAL DIRECTORY OF CORPORATE GIVING	for company-sponsored foundations and direct corporate giving programs by name, location, funding interests, types of support, geographic focus, and business activity of sponsoring company, its parent, and subsidiaries	detailed information on companies and their giving interests and restrictions, application guidelines, and names of program administrators	corporate charitable activities, including 1,274 direct corporate giving (non-foundation) programs and 2,633 corporate foundations	Alphabetical by company name. Provides detailed information on the sponsoring company, including a financial profile, as well as extensive information on direct corporate giving programs
FOUNDATION FUNDAMENTALS	for learning the basics of what foundations are, and who gets foundation grants			tips on planning your funding research strategy including how to use the Foundation Directory Online database available at the Central Library.
FOUNDATION TODAY				Three titles: Foundation Yearbook: Facts & Figures on Private & Community Foundations, Foundation Giving Trends: Update on Funding Priorities, Foundation Growth & Giving Estimates: Current Outlook