Mr. Zabriskie will begin his executive director’s position on January 6th. The Board discussed the logistics of his arrival.

The Board gave their sincere thank you and immense appreciation to Ms. Marmor for stepping in and handling everything so well and very professionally during her tenure as the interim executive director.

Strategic Planning
Ms. Morgan-Baker handed out a draft patron survey, for the Board’s review.

Census
Ms. Coffta mentioned the Library is on track of where we should be in preparing for the 2020 census. She spoke about the various publicity platforms that will be used to get the word out and how to complete the census survey. She continued by explaining the different phases of the census process:
- education phase, through January
- general awareness phase, February
- motivation phase, March-April
- follow-up phase, May-July

The census opens on April 1st and officially closes in November.
Every library in the County will have a kick-off census party in April and will have light refreshments and balloons to attract the public.
Anyone who hasn’t replied by the beginning of June, the Census trackers will then begin to make their rounds from house-to-house to get them filled out.

Other
Delivery Transit Stats: Mr. Dell reviewed the handout with the Board. There was a brief discussion on how the stats are compiled.

Incidents: Ms. Hurst-Wahl asked about what constitutes an incident and what determines a violent incident. Mr. Diede explained the differences between the types of incidents.
