Art Display and Reception
We’ve Come a Long Way Baby: Celebration of Women’s History Month
Reception: Sunday, March 15 | 2 - 4 pm
In honor of Women’s History Month, Soule will host a special exhibition of art by members of the community. This year’s exhibit, entitled “We’ve Come a Long Way, Baby,” offers insights into the feminine mind, realized through a variety of art forms. Mediums include poetry, essays, two dimensional art (photography, painting, mixed media, and collage), and three dimensional works (sculpture, ceramics, fabric, clothing, hats, jewelry and quilts). This year’s show will be shared between both Petit and Soule Branch Libraries. Two receptions will be held: the first at Petit Branch Library on March 7 from 2 - 4 pm and the second at Soule on March 15 from 2 - 4 pm. Light refreshments will be served. The display will be available for viewing during business hours throughout the month of March.

Managing the Risk: Tick Bite Prevention and What to Do If You’ve Been Bitten
Presenter: Onondaga County Cornell Cooperative Extension
Tuesday, March 24 | 6:00 pm
This workshop will cover tick identification, tick habitat, taking preventative measures through dress, appropriate use of pesticides, habitat management, and using concepts of Integrated Pest Management to reduce the risk of tick bites. There will be examples of a tick flag for tick drags, tick tubes and a permethrin spray. Each household in attendance will receive one tick kit which contains microtweezers for removing ticks according to CDC guidelines.

For Adults:
LEGO Architecture Challenge - March 9 - 15
As many of you have come to know, we have a community puzzle table set up in our Adult Fiction/Non-Fiction section. This month, we’ve decided to set up a unique twist on the task for our puzzle-builders with our LEGO Architecture Challenge. From March 9-15, we will be challenging you to see if you can construct the United States Capitol building from over 1,000 LEGO bricks. Can we finish in a week? Only time will tell!

Art Alternatives to Violence
Saturday, March 21 | 1:00 - 3:00 pm
Conflict will always be with us, but we can embrace and transform it. Join local Alternatives to Violence Project facilitators and other community members to learn how to transform conflict and find alternatives to violence at one of a series of participatory, interactive mini-AVP workshops. Topics/themes will include affirmation, communication, cooperation, and creative conflict resolution.

Book-A-Librarian
Confused by computers? Puzzled by PowerPoint? E-books escaping you? We have a fix for that! Soule Branch Library is offering Book-A-Librarian appointments. Topics for the session will be tailored to your needs: e-books, laptops, Microsoft Word, Excel, iPads™, iPods™, MP3 players... the list goes on. To schedule an appointment, call the library at 435-5320.

For Children:

Special Guest Story Time
Wednesday, March 18 | 6:00 pm
Join us for an evening story time at Soule featuring a special guest reader... OCPL's new executive director, Christian Zabriskie! We can't wait to see what fun is in store with the stories he shares.

Story Play
Tuesday, March 3, 10, 17, 24 & 31 | 11:00 am
Did you know that play = learning? This fun, informal story time combines stories with play time. Enjoy stories, discover wonderful toys, and meet new friends. We may even do an art project from time to time! This program is co-hosted by the Community Library of DeWitt & Jamesville, and is open for children ages birth to five years old with their caregiver. No registration is necessary; please join us as you wish.

Please advise the Onondaga County Public Library at least five days in advance should you need a sign or other language interpreter, an assistive listening system, or any other accommodation to facilitate your participation at an event.

Mark Allnatt, a Program Title VI Coordinator for OCPL, can be contacted by phone at 315-435-1876 or by e-mail at mallnatt@onlib.org for more information.
