

About this Site

The Onondaga County Public Library seeks to make resources available and useful to the public. Through this Website, the Library offers public access to a broad range of information, including historical materials that may contain offensive language or negative stereotypes. You should view such materials in the historical context in which they were created. All historical media are presented as specific, original artifacts, without further enhancement to their appearance or quality, as a record of the era in which they were produced.

The Library has a Privacy Policy and a Web Privacy Policy. By using the Library's Website, you signify your acceptance of this Privacy Policy and Web Privacy Policy.

The Library also has an Internet Use Policy.
